- (7) Violation of halfway house rules at TCSC by driving a red Chevrolet Blazer to and from employment on or about February 9, 2006.

At today's bond revocation hearing, I re-advised the defendant of these charges and of his constitutional rights. The defendant admitted to violation numbers 2, 3, 6 and 7. The Government has agreed to withdraw violation numbers 1, 4 and 5. Accordingly the bond was revoked as defendant poses a risk of nonappearance and danger to the community. The defense did not object.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

2 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States,
